Disciples

By Pastor Wes Telyea

Now Samuel did not yet know the Lord, and the word of the Lord had not yet been revealed to him. The Lord called Samuel again, a third time. And he got up and went to Eli, and said, 'Here I am, for you called me.' Then Eli perceived that the Lord was calling the boy.
1 Samuel 3:7-8

Brothers and Sisters grace, mercy and peace to you!

I am honored and thrilled to have you call me as your new Senior Lead Pastor. Our Savior Lutheran Church has always had a special place in my heart, after all it was the place I was ordained. To now have the chance to team with you in ministry at this wonderful place is a blessing to me and my family. A lot has changed since I last served OSLC, both for me and for you, and I look forward to catching up with everyone and meeting new folks.

In July, when I arrive, I want to spend time reconnecting with you and hearing the stories that have shaped OSLC. One of the ways I want to do this is by jumping into a sermon series entitled: Listen, God is Calling. One of my favorite Bible stories is Samuel's call found in 1 Samuel 3. Basically the story is about God calling Samuel, but Samuel mistaking God's voice for Eli's (his mentor). After calling Samuel three times Eli realizes God is calling Samuel, and so he instructs Samuel to answer God. His call kicks off one of the most adventurous stories we find in the Bible.

Samuel's call story also highlights two important biblical truths. First, God is always calling us, and it's easy to mistake His voice for another's. Second, understanding God's voice takes effort from everyone. As I begin to serve you let's sit down together and begin to discern what the God narrative is at OSLC.

To do this there will be two components in this sermon series. First, will be the sermons during worship. Between July 17th and August 14th each Sunday will be marked by a specific focus to help us all discern where God has called and is calling OSLC. The theme's are:

- July 17th - Worship
- July 24th - Discipleship
- July 31st - Service
- August 7th - Issaquah
- August 14th - Future

The second component to this sermon series will be a town hall meeting where we discuss how the readings for the day spoke to people, and how the readings are shaping OSLC as we mark this new chapter in the congregation's history. This will be a time to help me get to know OSLC, and its ministry passions. Please make it a priority to come to worship, and stick around for the town hall meeting.

I am looking forward to our ministry together!

In Christ,
Pastor Wes

President's Update

By: Judi Case, Council President

Summertime – Our Time to Shine!

I recently attended my 11-year-old grandson's promotion from fifth grade. The students gathered on the risers and sang "This Little Light of Mine". It was done heartily, with many waving of hands and huge smiles all around. I couldn't help but thinking – this song, the energy and promise, reflects not only the exciting future of these kids, but ours at OSLC as well. Our time to shine is also upon us.

While many of us are busy planning vacations, yard work or special projects, Our Savior's Council and staff, along with many volunteers, are busily preparing for our new pastor's arrival. Yard work parties have been scheduled, cleaning and painting done, windows cleaned – all good work done by many hands! Together we will shine in God's peace, as we begin our new adventures with Pastor Telyea. Summertime is often a sleepy time for many, schedules are relaxed, the church halls are quiet, meetings and classes are on hiatus. Into this quietude comes an excitement as great as that I experienced at the fifth grade promotion – new experiences await us, and we are on the brink of more growth and learning. And – we don't have to wait for the fall and school to begin again! Our time to shine is now.

See you all around campus!

There is nothing quite like gathering around a campfire on a cool summer evening. On Wednesday evenings August 3, 10, 17 and 24, OSLC will hold a series of community campfires on the shores of Lake Sammamish. Music, games, hot dogs, condiments, water and SMORES will be provided. Participants are welcome to bring some food item to share. And, don't forget a friend, and something to sit on. We gather beginning at 6:30 p.m. each Wednesday. All are welcome.

If you and your family would like to help as campfire hosts, please contact the church office, office@oslcissaquah.org.

Together, we celebrate the good gifts of our Creator and nurture God's hope-filled promises in our lives. Summer is a time to celebrate and a time to grow. We hope you choose to participate in the events that we have planned. And, we hope you invite others.

The choir rehearses on Wednesday evenings (7:00 p.m. in the sanctuary), beginning the Wednesday after Labor Day. OSLC's Social Concerns Committee

July/August 2016

Tools 4 Schools:

The Issaquah Schools Foundation, in conjunction with the Issaquah Food Bank and lots of churches and community organizations, will provide over 1,000 backpacks full of needed school supplies for low income children in the Issaquah School District. Here are some ways you can help:

- Go to the website: www.isfdn.org/programs/tools-4-school
 - 1) Sign up to volunteer on August 20 for the backpack distribution.
 - 2) Donate a new backpack and bring it to OSLC during the month of July.
 - 3) Write a check made out to OSLC, with 'Tools 4 Schools' in the memo line, and drop it in the collection plate. OSLC has committed to give $1,000 to this project, and your check will help us meet that obligation.

There is more information on the Tools 4 Schools program on the table in the narthex.

Passage Point:

Our Welcome Baskets are making a big difference in the lives of newly arrived residents of Passage Point. We need about three baskets per month and your contributions are needed. There is a list of the items needed on the table in the narthex. You can also write a check to OSLC with 'Welcome Baskets' in the memo line.

There are three new babies expected this summer at Passage Point, so your contributions of diapers and other baby supplies are needed. Since Eastside Baby Corner can't accommodate Passage Point's needs yet, our contributions will meet a real need. Please put these items in the cupboard next to the outside doors in Anderson Hall and we will make sure they get to the families at Passage Point.

On Saturday, August 13th from 11:00 a.m. until 2:30 p.m., Passage Point will use Anderson Hall to show the movie, "Paper Tigers." It's a film about adverse childhood experiences. Help with childcare is needed for this. If you can help, contact Connie Fletcher at fletch501c@aol.com.

OSLC member, Les Gagnon, is leading a group of OSLC members who will be reading, playing games and making crafts with little ones at Passage Point. If you are interested in helping, let Les know, lesgag@gmail.com.

OSLC's Book Club

*Issaquah Barnes and Noble Bookstore
Monday, July 11th @ 7:30 p.m.*

The next gathering for the Book Club is on Monday, July 11th at 7:30 p.m. at the Issaquah Barnes and Noble Bookstore. They will discuss the book, The Blackhouse by Peter May. When a grisly murder occurs on the Isle of Lewis, Edinburgh detective and native islander Fin Macleod is dispatched to Outer Hebrides to investigate, embarking at the same time on a voyage into his own troubled past. Every step toward solving the case brings Fin closer to a dangerous confrontation with the dark events of the past that shaped – and nearly destroyed – his life.

Contact Sandy Nygaard for more information about the book club, sknygaard@comcast.net.

Mission Quilters

Join us Wednesday mornings from 9:30 a.m. until noon in Anderson Hall and assist us making quilts. The Mission

Quilters make simple patchwork quilts that are donated to people in need.

Last year quilts were donated to Lutheran World Relief. Quilts are sent all over the world, frequently to countries following natural disasters such as earthquakes and hurricanes. Quilts are also given to OSLC graduating seniors and to Compass Housing Alliance. Our neighbors at Issaquah Nursing and Rehabilitation Center were given lap quilts in time for Christmas last year.

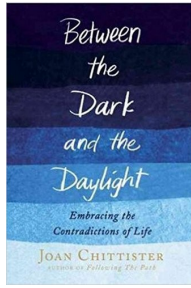

The Mission Quilters welcome new members. It is not necessary to know how to sew or quilt to participate in this ministry. The group welcomes donations of fabric (preferably cotton) and clean used sheets. Donations to help with the cost of shipping and to buy supplies are also greatly appreciated. Contact the church office for more information, 425-392-4169, ext. 100.

Save The Date! Women's Retreat 2017

March 3-5, 2017 @ Rainbow Lodge, North Bend

As you may recall, our annual Women's Retreat was cancelled this year because we did not have enough women who could commit by the due date. At that time, many of us expressed an interest in attending, but we simply did not meet the number needed.

We have already secured the weekend of March 3-5, 2017 at Rainbow Lodge in North Bend, and I am hopeful that after this missed opportunity last year, we can come back together in ministry and fellowship this coming year with gusto! Wouldn't it be awesome to not only meet our need but exceed our requirement???

We want to keep this wonderful retreat time together, but yet cannot financially put it on without the commitment from enough women saying that they will attend. OSLC is financially obligated to pay for 35 attendees – if fewer than 35 women sign up, the church has to pay the difference. The lodge fees have increased from two years ago, naturally - the cost for the weekend will be $150 for double-occupancy, and $160 for a private room. But for two nights lodging and four meals (that you don't have to plan or clean up after), this is still a great deal!

As I did last year, I have created an online poll to gauge interest in the retreat for March 3-5, 2017. Here is the link: http://goo.gl/forms/0ReBpIIYxX7dXvII2

Please respond by August 1st. We can cancel our reservation with the lodge six months in advance without penalty.

If I do not receive 35 “definite maybes” by August 1st, I will go ahead and cancel the retreat for 2017.

If you are not feeling very web savvy, just let me know by phone call or text message at 425-941-2925 if you think you might be able to attend. Again, please let me know by August 1st.

Of course, please ask your friends and neighbors if they might be interested in attending and include those in our “maybe” numbers. The more, the merrier!

Thank you for your consideration. If you have any questions, comments, or other suggestions, feel free to call/text me at 425-941-2925, or send me an e-mail at frielj4@comcast.net.

Joan Friel
OSLC Women's Retreat Coordinator

Thank You!

Dear Sisters and Brothers:

Thanks be to God and to you for the 18 months we have had together. I will look back on the moments of ministry with a profound appreciation for your willing partnership in the Gospel

Thanks be to you for all the kinds words, cards, and gifts which marked the end of my time with you. Affirmations of ministry are always welcomed, but fully and finally the ministry among you was not about me. It was (as it will be) about God and the Gospel.

When you read this you will be on the edge of new Pastoral leadership. I trust that you will welcome Pastor Telyea and his family with the same warmth and commitment to partnership with which you welcomed me.

Like a "bad penny" I will return to be with you. But, whether here or there you and I will always be sisters and brothers in Christ.

God's Peace,
R. L. Christensen

Henrik & Patty Christopherson; for the congregations in Chiclayo, Peru: Pepe at Las Brisas, Merci in San Antonio and Harold at Las Lomas. MaaSae Girls Lutheran Secondary School in Monduli, Tanzania.

Prayer is putting our faith into action, and prayer is pleasing to God. Link up with our prayer chain if you have a need or if you want to share a thanksgiving or praise. Call Shirley Witsoe, 425-413-6754.
