Fearlessly Follow Jesus

By: Pastor Wesley C. Telyea

He sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal.
Luke 9:2

As fearless followers of Jesus we have been sent out to proclaim the kingdom of God. The biggest question we are currently asking at OSLC when we hear this command is: How? How do we proclaim the kingdom of God? And, what are the habits we need to form to be fearless followers of Jesus?

In September the council went on retreat, and during our time together I put into place a tool called a V2MOM (Vision, Values, Methods, Obstacles, Metrics). During the retreat the council took the feedback from the summer sermon series and made their own V2MOM. As we continue to move through transition together I want to share this tool with you. OSLC's V2MOM is a living document that will guide how we fearlessly follow Jesus in the new era of ministry here.

Ash Wednesday (March 1 @ 7:00 PM)

On Ash Wednesday, we gather to receive ashes in the sign of a cross on our foreheads. This ritual and every part of our worship on this night draw us beyond our fears of death and failure in this life to the promise of new life in Christ. Here at the beginning of our Lenten season, we hear the invitation to be renewed and re-shaped by God.

Additional women's retreat information can also be found on page 8 of this newsletter.

My four-year old daughter, Genevieve, asked me a while back how Jesus gets out of our heart. Though I suspect she meant it more literally than figuratively, it led to a nice conversation about how we show Jesus' love by the things we do – things like helping her younger brother Henry with things he can't quite do yet or playing with the new kid in her daycare class.

This also led me to think about the influence of our church community on the children who come through our doors, whether its once or every week. My husband Adam and I don't recall talking to Genevieve about Jesus being in our hearts, yet she has clearly learned it. We have all heard it takes a village to raise a child and OSLC is part of the village raising my children and many others. As a parent, I think a lot about the message I am sending my kids: are my words telling them the same thing as my actions?

I heard many times throughout the transition period and call process how important it is to our congregation to attract young families. Many of you expressed hope for a pastor with a young family. Pastor Wes, Emilee, Noah, Hannah and Micah are a tremendous asset to our church community, but it is ultimately the rest of us that welcome or deter young families. Kids in church inevitably brings noise in church – sometimes joyful, sometimes not. How are we responding to that noise? Are we wishing the kids would just go to the nursery so we could worship in peace? Are we silently judging the parents for not "controlling" their kids? What message are we sending?

Adam and I have felt, at times, that we have been on the receiving end of both sentiments. What if you were part of a young family visiting for the first time and felt like you were being judged negatively? Would you want to come back? What message are we sending?

I haven't yet met someone who said raising kids was the easiest thing they've ever done. How can we be supportive of the children in church and their families? How do we respond when a child inevitably makes noise in church? What if we told them how glad we are they are here, learning about God's love? What if we asked their parents if we could help in some way or offered some words of support? As Genevieve asked, how does Jesus get out of our heart? What message are we sending?

As many of you know, Genevieve went through the intensive feeding therapy program at Children's to have the feeding tube she had had since birth removed. During that time, she was on the prayer list, heard her name and asked about it. After we talked about what it means to have the prayers and support of your whole church family, she wanted to put her brother and cousin on the prayer list so they could have that, too. Our kids are always learning, even when they don't seem to be paying attention – what message are we sending?

In peace,
Manda Schoen, OSLC Council President

Engaging the Spiritual Practices of Lent and the Three Days

With The Rev. Dr. Samuel Torvend
Sunday, March 5, 2017
3:00—5:30 p.m.
Our Savior Lutheran Church

In this workshop, participants will consider a newer (but actually much older) understanding of Lent and how Luther's Small Catechism offers a model for engaging spiritual practices that lead to the renewal of Christian life at Easter. This is a practical workshop that will give participants a number of practices to consider as we move into the season of Lent that culminates in the Three Days. You can expect a well-organized, engaging, and thoughtful time to reflect on what matters in Christian life—all touched with a wry sense of humor.

Dr. Samuel Torvend holds the University Chair in Lutheran Studies at PLU where he has been teaching for eighteen years. At the same time, he also serves as the associate for Adult Christian Formation at Christ Church in Tacoma. One of his most recent books touches on this workshop: Flowing Water, Uncommon Birth: Christian Baptism in a post-Christian Culture (Augsburg Fortress, 2011).

Be sure to mark this date in your calendars and join us! So that we will have the appropriate number of materials ready, please let the church office know if you are planning to attend. (office@oslccissaquah.org).

Prayer Shawl Ministry Meeting

The OSLC prayer shawl ministry has been called upon to deliver the comfort of our shawls to many of our sisters and brothers over the past year. This ministry is one way that we 'wrap our arms' around our family in Christ. Do you have an ability or an interest in knitting or crocheting? Our supply of shawls needs to be replenished. Whether you come to church to knit, or work on these gifts alone, or in a small group, we welcome your efforts to assist in this ministry. We have some yarn and a few patterns that you may pick up at church, or you may donate to the knitting ministry by writing a check to OSLC and putting "Prayer Shawl Ministry" on the memo line. We will meet on Sunday February 19th after service to welcome new members and to bless the shawls that have been created. Contact Judi Case with questions judicase@outlook.com or 425 445 2803

New-Life Spirituality Group

February 5th @ 6:30 p.m.

If you are looking for fun people and animated conversation, join our New Life book discussion group. We meet a couple of Sunday evenings and we rotate homes. They will meet on February 5th at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Don Miller. If you'd like to more information or have questions, e-mail Don Miller at Mr.don.miller@gmail.com.

Mission Quilters

Join us Wednesday mornings from 9:30 a.m. until noon in Anderson Hall and assist us making quilts.

The Mission Quilters make simple patchwork quilts that are donated to people in need. Contact the church office for more information, 425-392-4169, ext. 100.

OSLC's Book Club

Barnes & Noble Bookstore,
Issaquah

Monday, March 13 @ 7:30 p.m.

The book club will meet on Monday, March 13th at 7:30 p.m. at the Issaquah Barnes and Noble bookstore to discuss the book, The Fifth Gospel by Ian Caldwell. The curator of a mysterious exhibit at the Vatican Museum is murdered a week before it opens. That same night, a break-in rocks the home of Father Alex. When the papal police fail to solve either crime, Father Alex decides that to find the killer he must reconstruct what a fifth gospel reveals about a controversial holy relic. But just as he begins to understand the truth, Father Alex discovers a ruthless stalker is hunting him—an enemy with a vested stake in the exhibit that he must outwit to survive. For more information about the book club, contact Sandy Nygaard at sknygaard@comcast.net.

Social Concerns Committee Update

By Connie Fletcher

Lunch for the Break is coming up quickly! As of January 26th, boxes for 148 children had been registered as donations, but the need is projected to be for 400 children. Can you help? Please see lunchforthebreak.com for a list of items to put into your box. Donations of money are also appreciated to purchase the fresh produce and bread. Checks can be made out to OSLC, with Social Concerns in the memo line, and we'll get it to the Food Bank for you. Food Boxes should be dropped off at OSLC by February 15th. We also need volunteers to help carry boxes on the afternoons of February 15th and 16th. If you can handle a little physical labor, we need you!!! All families in the Issaquah School District are eligible. You can register on the lunchforthebreak.com website.

Our turn for the Community Meals Program is always the second Tuesday of the month. February's meal will be on Valentine's Day. We could use some homemade Valentine's cookies. If you can help, please let me know. We are also short of volunteers to serve the meal on the even numbered months. Come join our happy crew as we have fun preparing and serving really good meals for the needy in our community.

The Social Concerns committee, which means all in the congregation who would like to work on the areas of food insecurity, homelessness and other issues related to social justice, will meet after church on March 12 in the "living room". Please join us! We will get an update on our on-going programs, like Safe Parking, Passage Point, the Community Meals Program and Lunch for the Break, as well as discuss new initiatives, like Compassion House. In addition to these items on the agenda, Brendan Rorem from Thrivent Financial for Lutherans, will be with us to talk about Thrivent Action Teams which provide seed money for teams that want to take on social concerns projects.

Passage Point

Passage Point, the supportive village that helps bring families together post incarceration, is having a resident's dinner on February 17th. The village is full – with 46 apartments housing over 80 children and their parents. The residents will be making some healthy crock pot meals, using the recipes that we taught them in our last cooking class in the Fall. OSLC has been asked to bring three different crock pot meals to the dinner, along with some healthy desserts. If you have a crock pot and are interested in donating a meal, please contact Judi Case: judicase@outlook.com or 425 445 2803. We will be running another healthy crock pot cooking class in the late Spring, so watch for more news on this exciting opportunity!.

Double the Money, Double the Good

Great news from the Endowment Fund

A generous OSLC family has offered a challenge. During 2017, they will match donations to the OSLC Mission Endowment Fund up to a match of $10,000. That potential increase of $20,000, plus the fund's current balance of $16,680, will put the fund within striking distance of the $40,000 in donations needed before it can distribute money for mission support.

We need your help to take advantage of this exciting opportunity. You can:

- ♦ Write a check - write 'endowment fund' on the memo line of your check.
- ♦ Donate stock - talk to a committee member for details.
- ♦ Designate a portion of your IRA required minimum distributions.
- ♦ Cash works, too - be sure to write 'endowment fund' on your envelope.

A gift to the endowment fund is a gift to the future. The fund maintains a permanent fixed amount of principal, while the earnings and increased value will be used to further the mission and ministry of OSLC. For more information on the fund, please see the brochures on the table in the narthex, or talk to one of the committee members listed below.

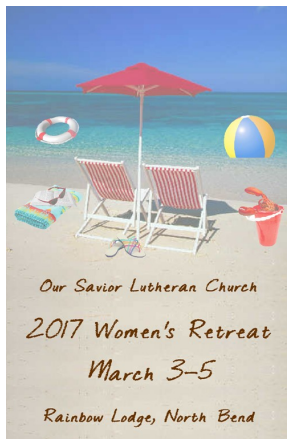

Are you up for the challenge?

Committee members: Connie Fletcher, Justin Ulland, Sandy Nygaard, Carl Boruck, Don Cumming

Please consider donating to the OSLC Women's Retreat Scholarship Fund!

The next OSLC Women's Retreat will be held during the first weekend in March. This ministry for the current year is completely self-funded, and we have had to raise our rates to cover our costs, so we could use your financial support. Some attendees may not be able to attend unless they were given even just a partial scholarship, so please consider donating to the scholarship fund. Even though we did very well with our bazaar, the more funds we have, the more attendees we can help out. And remember, contributions are tax-deductible. Checks can be made out to "OSLC" with "Women's Retreat - Donation" on the memo line, and turned in at the office or mailed to Joan Friel (15642 203rd PL SE, Renton, WA, 98059).

Thank you in advance for your support of the Women's Ministries at OSLC! If you have any questions, please contact Joan Friel via e-mail at frielj4@comcast.net, or via phone call/text msg. at 425-941-2925. If you would like to be considered for a full or partial scholarship, you may contact Joan or the church office - all requests are kept strictly confidential.

Beach-y Decorations Wanted for the 2017 OSLC Women's Retreat March 3-5, 2017

Part of our theme for the 2017 OSLC Women's Retreat is the beach, so we would love to be able to decorate the space with decorations that will make us feel like we're relaxing in the sand, even though it's March! Sea shells, fish nets, raffia table skirts, beach balls, fish and palm tree cutouts - that sort of thing! So if you have anything that reminds us of the beach that we could borrow to use for decorations for the retreat, please contact Joan Friel via e-mail at frielj4@comcast.net, or via phone call/text msg. at 425-941-2925. All items will be marked with your name and returned after the retreat. P.S. If you'd rather just contribute financially to providing decorations and craft supplies, you may write a check made out to "OSLC" with "Women's Retreat - Donation" on the memo line and turn it in to the office or mail it to Joan Friel (15642 203rd PL SE, Renton, WA, 98059). Thank you!
