Trains Come, Trains Go...

By: Janet Heck, Parish Administrator

My grandson, Paxson (3 years old), is an incredible engineer of building trains. He can make the best of his Brio train set. Inclines, declines, bridges, intersections, bypasses, overpasses you name it he builds it. Sometimes, this is, of course, with his dad's help. But I gotta tell you he's a good engineer! His younger cousin, Hudson (6 months old) promises to be a train wreck for Paxson at some future point. Just wait. Trains come, and trains go.

Life is like a train ride. It comes and goes. Work is like a train ride. It comes and goes. My time with you as Parish Administrator is coming to an end. I have thoroughly enjoyed my 19 years at Our Savior Lutheran. You have given me so much joy. You have shared your hearts and pain with me. You have shared your joys with me. I've also shared my heart with you as well as my joys. As my husband, Mike, battled brain cancer in 2010 - 2012 we (all of you, Mike, myself and my family) were a team praying. We both felt that then, and I continue to feel that today. God's blessings are too many to count. Trains come, and trains go.

As I near the end of my track at OSLC, I do so with admiration for all of you! We have gone through so much together. Staff changes, retirements, interim pastors, transitions, new pastoral calls. I hope and pray I have served you well through these years of hardship, endings, excitement and new beginnings. I certainly have tried. Remember, to Fearlessly follow Jesus. Trains come, and trains go.

Pastor Wes, Scott and Shari are now on track to continue leading you. They will each do a marvelous job. Pastor Wes and his preaching and teaching will sustain you. Scott with his miraculous ability to orchestrate and compose music, all the while balancing the life of volunteer musicians, is admirable to say the least. Shari brings office experience as she has served as Office Assistant for several years. She will be the person now in the office.

Will the office be the same? Simple answer is no, it won't. But don't fret. She will serve you well and consistently. Trains come, and trains go.

So, you may ask, what am I going to do in retirement? Well, the simple answer is, "throw away the alarm clock!" But seriously, I'll have a week with my family on the Washington Coast immediately following May 24th, my last day in the office. Then I will enjoy the splendid spring and amazing summer weather (I hope!) that we get in Washington. Morning coffee on my deck is an amazing thought. I'm not going far. I'll still be in Renton. I just won't be behind the desk at OSLC. I'm fortunate in that I don't have to 'stay away' from OSLC. You'll see me in worship now and then and when you do, I expect hugs!

Thank you, OSLC, for letting me be your Parish Administrator for 19 years. It's like an engineer of a train, steering you all and bending around the curves and over the hills all the while knowing Christ is in the lead. While my train will be at the end of the track shortly, I will continue to hold all of you in my daily thoughts and prayers and I ask all of you to hold me in yours. It's been an incredible ride and I can't thank you enough for your love, prayers and support for me and my family: David, Katlyn, Paxson, Paul, my mom Eileen, Stacy, Nick and Hudson. I'm forever grateful for God's call to OSLC. Trains come, and trains go.

In Peace,
Janet

President's Message

By: Manda Schoen, Council President

Recently, I began refinishing a stool my grandfather had made for me when I was a little girl. It was badly in need of it, along with some repairs, but I had been putting it off for years. Even though the paint and finish was chipped and nearly worn off in places, it was the paint and finish Grandpa had applied – for ME. Somehow, it felt like that would be diminished by stripping it away to apply new paint and stain. Once I finally started, though, I could see the new life I was giving it and I thought a lot about Grandpa as I was working on it. The stool looks beautiful and now my kids will be able to use it for years. Grandpa would be proud of both.

Council is holding a spring retreat in early May. Our goal for this retreat is to consider our vision of "Fearlessly Following Jesus" and how we apply it to the work and ministry we are doing at OSLC. What assumptions do we need to challenge and reconsider? Are we letting memories of the way things were stand in the way of where we are being called to go? Have we put off changes for fear that things just won't be the same – that changing things will somehow invalidate our memories of the way things were? Needs change – how do we listen to understand those needs and how we can best serve them? We hope to emerge from our retreat with clarity and renewed energy to give new life to our ministries.

In Peace, Manda

OSLC's Parish Administrator, Janet Heck, is Retiring

Join us on Sunday, June 3rd

Today is a good day and a sad day. It is a good day because Janet Heck, our beloved Parish Administrator of 19 years, has announced her retirement; and it is a sad day, because Janet has announced her retirement. She will be deeply missed here, however we cannot help but to be happy for her. For 19 years, Janet helped build OSLC and shape this congregation by being a welcoming presence to ensure that ministry happened.

Let us thank God for Janet and her ministry. Her last day in the office will be Thursday, May 24th, and we will formally celebrate her on Sunday, June 3rd. Please mark your calendars, and plan to attend both worship and a reception following in Anderson Hall to celebrate Janet and her retirement.

Altar Guild Missing Altar Cloth!

A year ago (Lent of 2017) the Altar Guild got a new black cloth to drape on the altar during Good Friday. When we went to look for it this year, it was missing. Someone probably took it home to launder or iron it or to hem it to a different size. Please check your fabric stash and if you find it, please return it.

The drape is black . . . . .

For three Wednesday evenings in July, OSLC would like to again have Mid-week Campfire Worship on the shores of Lake Sammamish. If you are interested in providing the leadership for this year's campfire worship, please contact Pastor Wes, wes@oslcissaquah.org.

Tuesday Morning Bible Study

Join us on Tuesday mornings at 10:00 a.m. in the library. We are currently studying the book of Acts. Coffee is always ready! Bring your Bible.

OSLC's Book Club

May 14th @ 7:30 p.m.
@ Barnes and Noble Bookstore

The book club will meet on Monday, May 8th at 7:30 p.m. at the Issaquah Barnes and Noble bookstore to discuss the book, Killers of the Flower Moon, by David Grann. Killers of the Flower Moon is the story of the Osage Murders and the Birth of the FBI. Author David Grann chronicles a tale of murder, betrayal, heroism and a nation's struggle to leave its frontier culture behind and enter the modern world. Filled with almost mythic characters from our past—stoic Texas Rangers, corrupt robber barons, private detectives, and murderous desperadoes like the Al Spencer gang—Grann's story amounts to a secret history of the American frontier. For more information about the book club, contact, Alice North at anor461@hotmail.com.

OSLC Mission Quilters

Join us Wednesday mornings from 9:30 a.m. until noon in Anderson Hall and assist us making quilts. The Mission Quilters make simple patchwork quilts that are donated to people in need.

On Sunday, April 29th quilts were blessed prior to being sent and/or donated. Last year quilts were donated to Lutheran World Relief. Quilts are sent all over the world, frequently to countries following natural disasters such as earthquakes and hurricanes. Quilts are also presented to OSLC graduating seniors and to Compass Housing Alliance. Our neighbors at Issaquah Nursing and Rehabilitation Center were also given lap quilts at Christmas.

The Mission Quilters welcome new members. It is not necessary to know how to sew or quilt to participate in this ministry. The group welcomes donations of fabric (preferably cotton) and clean used sheets. Donations to help with the cost of shipping and to buy supplies are also greatly appreciated.

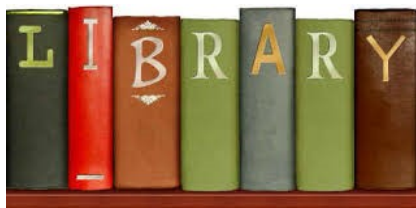

Hope and Faith Circles are monthly women's Bible study groups that meet in participants homes. The study focus for both studies is from the Lutheran Magazine, Gather.

Hope Circle, Friday, May 18, 9:30 a.m.

Hope Circle will meet Friday, May 18th at the home of a participant. For more information on Hope Circle or for carpooling information, please contact Sandy Aldworth at (425) 837-1233 or mtnlady@comcast.net.

Faith Circle, Monday, May 21, 1:30 p.m.

If you need more information or would like to join Faith Circle, please contact Gwynn Wilkinson at (425) 392-1893 or Gwynnlw@gmail.com.

OSLC Library News

By Sharon Mantei

If you hesitate to visit our OSLC library because you think its shelves must be filled with dusty, time-worn volumes of dated subject matter, please let me remind you that we are constantly adding new books to our shelves. We place them first in the "new additions" section just inside the door so you can make a quick check of our newest titles. After awhile, we place them where they belong on the shelves of the library or on the mobile cart that you pass as you enter the sanctuary, so that we can make room for even newer books. Wondering if our selection contains current subject matter? Let me list a few that have just been processed and are presently in the "new books" section (later to be shelved using their provided Dewey decimal number):

Race relations:

- The New Jim Crow; Mass Incarceration in the Age of Colorblindness by Michelle Alexander (261.8)
- Pre – Post-Racial America; Spiritual Stories From the Front Lines by Sandhya Rani Jha (261.8)

Global warming/climate change:

- A New Climate for Theology; God, the World, and Global Warming by Sallie McFague (261.836)
- Green Faith; Mobilizing God's People to Save the Earth by Fletcher Harper (261.836)

But, remember, some of those older time-worn titles (we call them "classics") have some amazing, thoughtful ideas, too!

Social Concerns Committee

By Kate Gagnon, Council Representative

April began with a lovely Easter Day. As always the church looked beautiful, the music was beautiful and there was much rejoicing about the miracle of our Risen Lord. A lovely brunch was served between the early and late service. So many people contributed to making this a wonderful celebration.

On May 4th and 5th Anderson Hall will be transformed into a retail shop for tuxedos and prom dresses for Issaquah School District high school students in need. Judi Case is leading this effort in conjunction with the Issaquah Food and Clothing Bank and the social concerns committee is supporting the effort. There is a need for helpers especially people who can do simple alterations.

On April 4th and 5th Anderson Hall was again used as the drop off and pick up point for another Lunch for the Break, again working in conjunction with the Issaquah Food and Clothing Bank. More than 400 children in the community were the recipients of boxes of food to be eaten during spring break. The children that came were also able to choose books to take home. Our faithful Social Concerns committee members worked to serve the families that came in. Thank you to all who contributed boxes of food and assisted with this endeavor.

During the months of March and April contract negotiations took place with Encompass, the agency that has been awarded the use of our downstairs space. There were some tasks that the Building and Grounds Committee, led by Mark Cron, needed to complete to get the room ready. Encompass is delighted to have the space and will also use the outdoor play area adjacent to the preschool. They are already talking about ways that they can expand their services to serve more children since they have the additional space. Council struggled with the issue of asking Encompass to make a monthly donation for use of the room and finally voted to give them the space without any donation for the first year. Through much prayer and discussion council felt that this was an opportunity to share the space we have willingly and freely in our efforts to Fearlessly Follow Jesus. Encompass is hoping to start utilizing the former preschool space effective June 1st. They are also looking forward to offering an orientation to their agency and an open house of the space at a later date so that we can all become more familiar with the important work they do with families and children. Watch for more details to come!

I am constantly blessed by my work of the Social Concerns Committee. Our committee is a dedicated, hard-working and creative group always seeking to find new and innovative ways to work in the community to serve God's people. We are always looking for new committee members to join us as well. Let me know if this is an interest of yours.

In Christ,

Kate Gagnon, Social Concerns Chair

Global Missions Committee

Submitted By Rev. Peter Shen

OSLC is linked globally to the Qingdao Autism Center in China through our support and donations to ELCA World Hunger Fund. This Autism Center provides professional rehabilitation care and resources to the families with Autism Children through the ELCA World Hunger Grant. We have learned a great deal from this accompaniment journey with the Autism Center. It is not only the material and financial assistance that bring hope to the families, but the encouragement and caring from the entire community motivating them in the rehabilitation and healing process.

The following stories are whispered in the words of Isaiah 1:17: "Learn to do good; seek justice, rescue the oppressed, defend the orphan, plead for the widow."

< (Kan-Kan Home Visit) >

(Kan-Kan Father Working) >

This is a story about one of the children named Kan-Kan. Her father lost his job. Her sister goes to school in a different city. Her mother accompanies her for the daily rehabilitation. The family often suffers from hunger and cold. Because the assistance provided by World Hunger grant, the father is motivated to start a food stand on the street. Their struggle and effort caught the attention of the community. With much support of the community, they are now living comfortably and with great hope for the future.

<(Tao-Tao at the Center) >

Xiao Dong, a young teacher at the Center, told the story of Tao-Tao: "We engaged a systematic rehabilitation effort to Tao-Tao who is a seven year old boy with a very late mental development with severe anxiety and isolation. We learned that Tao-Tao was not receiving proper parental care and guidance. We adopted 'sand box' simulation game with Tao-Tao and his parents. Together with psychological consoling and rehabilitation, there has been great success after a year's effort. The parents now understand the Autism behavior and actively participate in Tao-Tao's healing and rehabilitation process in daily activities. Tao-Tao now opens-up with people and active in learning." With great satisfaction, Xiao Dong ended the story: "Tao-Tao is now accepted to the regular elementary school."
