Be a community that fearlessly follows Jesus to love God's people.

"The gifts he (Jesus) gave were that some would be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ." Ephesians 4:11-12

Greetings OSLC!

Have you ever had a coach? Maybe you used to play a sport and had a head coach who told you what to do, and made you run laps? Or maybe you had a choir coach who trained your voice using several different techniques. Or maybe you have had a life coach or an executive coach who helped you achieve your personal or professional goals. The International Coaching Federation defines a coach as:

... someone who partners with others, individually or in a group setting, in a thought-provoking and creative process that inspires them to maximize their personal and professional potential.

Coaches are unique people, they are important people, but they are also people who we seldom talk about because what they do is help us achieve our goals. Coaches walk alongside people, knowing they will be in the shadows, so others look good.

The Apostle Paul tried to be a coach with the congregations he planted. He wanted those congregations to be Christ for their communities. So the way Paul interacted with the congregations he started was through a coaching relationship.

As we ponder our ministry together I want you to consider how we, you and I, might begin to think and act like Paul did with the congregations he started and coached. How would a coaching leadership style help us more fully fearlessly follow Jesus?

In Christ, Pr. Wes

President's Message

By: Manda Schoen, Council President

Dear OSLC,

Please join us after worship on November 18 for the annual congregational meeting. At this meeting, we will hold elections for Council, the Endowment Committee, and the Nominating Committee. Open positions on Council include Vice President, Treasurer, Stewardship, Social Concerns, Global Missions, Outreach, and Buildings and Grounds. We will also hear updates from Council, the Endowment Committee, and Pastor Wes.

I read a piece of advice as a busy mom with young kids that stuck with me: in considering commitments, replace "I don't have time" with "it's not a priority." If that doesn't sit well, what can you change? Is it a priority for you for OSLC to have good leadership? Serving on Council is a rewarding experience that offers an opportunity to help shape the vision and determine the priorities for OSLC. If you or someone you know would be well suited for one of the open Council positions, please contact a member of the nominating committee. Members include Pastor Wes, Sue Friddell, Wendy Winslow, Bill Bergsma, Cheryl Leiter, and Ray Harbolt. Please thank them for the important work they are doing to shape our future.

In Peace,
Manda Schoen

Sunday, November 18th Semi-Annual Congregational Meeting 11:30 a.m. in Anderson Hall

On Sunday, November 18th, following our 10:00 a.m. worship service, we will have our semi-annual congregational meeting at 11:30 a.m. The business at the congregational meeting will include the election of 2019 Church Council members, and reports from Pastor Telyea and Manda Schoen, Council President. Please plan to attend this meeting.

Harvest Stewardship Dinner! November 10th

Gather with us for live music, meatballs, lefse and stewardship on Saturday evening, November 10th at 5:00 pm, in Anderson Hall. What is Lefse you might ask? A delicious Scandinavian soft flatbread!

Guest musicians will be the Muddy String Band (a regular at area farmers markets), and Paul Isop with his accordion.

We held a similar harvest dinner a couple of years ago. It was a lot of fun and very well attended. It took many hands to put it together and so will this year's dinner. Let us know you're coming — RSVP today to office@oslcissaquah.org.

Lefse makers and cookie bakers are needed. We will also need meatball makers in the church kitchen on Friday, Nov. 9th at 9:00 am. Please let Connie Fletcher know if you can help by contacting her at fletch501c@aol.com.

Lay Vistitation Ministry

Kate Gagnon

Hello OSLC Congregation,

It has been my pleasure to be your Lay Visitation Minister for the past 3 months. I have found the work interesting and rewarding. As you know, we have a number of church members who are elderly and/or unable to come to church on a regular basis. These are the people I have been visiting.

Over time I have become better acquainted with so many lovely people that I didn't know before. Fondness and friendships have grown. I usually bring the communion when I come. Administering this sacrament is a sacred act and a sacred time when I feel I am helping each person draw closer to Christ.

Since I have only been a member of OSLC for 4 years or so, there are probably many long time members that I do not know. I try to keep abreast of what is happening in the congregation and want to know if anyone is ill or going in for surgery. If they desire that I visit I certainly can do that. Please keep me posted if you know of people that may like a phone call and an offer of a visit.

In Christ,
Kate Gagnon,
Lay Visitation Minister

OSLC's Book Club

Barnes & Noble Bookstore, Issaquah
Monday, November 12th, at 7:30 p.m.

The next gathering for the Book Club is on Monday, November 12th at 7:30 p.m. at the Issaquah Barnes and Noble to discuss the book, Seven Days in May, by Kim Izzo. A novel of the Lusitania, inspired by true events. As World War I rages in continental Europe, two New York heiresses, Sydney and Brooke Sinclair, set sail for England. Brooke is engaged to marry. Sydney has other adventures in mind. As international tempers flare, the German embassy releases a warning that any ships making the Atlantic crossing are at risk. Undaunted, Sydney and Brooke board the Lusitania for the seven-day voyage. For further information about the book club, contact Alice North at AliceNorth85@yahoo.com

OSLC Library News

If you've visited the library lately, you've seen the many Reformation and Halloween books on display along with the lovely fall colors. Now those books are being replaced by Thanksgiving selections such as Squanto and the Miracle of Thanksgiving, a young reader's book by Eric Metaxas (JUV-B-SQU), and others containing recipes, celebration ideas and stories for all ages.

While you're browsing for holiday selections, remember to take a look at the new books just inside the library door to the right. There you might be interested in Blood Brothers; the unforgettable story of a Palestinian Christian working for peace in Israel, a biography by Elias Chacour (B-CHA) or What the Bible Really Says about Homosexuality by Daniel A. Helminiak, Ph.D. (261.835-HEL).

In the Juvenile section for young readers in the back corner, you will find the new selections of Grit and Grace; heroic women of the Bible by Caryn Rivadeneira (JUV 220.92) or Hattie Big Sky a Newberry book award-winner by Kirby Larson (F-LAR). Come visit the library; see what's there for your fall reading enjoyment!

Interested in the work and ministry of the OSCL Library? Join us on Monday, November 12th at 9:30 am, when the Library Committee will hold a workshop to re-shelve books and keep the library running smoothly. Please feel free to stop in. All are welcome.

SUNDAY SCHOOL FOR YOUTH & ADULTS!

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Gather with us each Sunday at 8:45 am in Anderson Hall for Adult Education Hour and Sunday School. Pastor Wes will start things off by engaging all ages with an introduction to the lesson for the day.

At 9:00 am, the gathering will break into small groups for discussion and faith-building activities. Groups: preschool-2nd graders, 3rd-7th graders, 8th-12th graders, and adults.

At 9:30 am, we'll come back together to recap and close in prayer.

The lesson each Sunday will be based on the Scripture readings used in worship, and will correlate with that day's sermon.

Looking Ahead

Christmas Tree Trimming Saturday, December 1st, 9:30 am

Do you have a passion for decorating and sharing the magic of Christmas? Please join us on Saturday, December 1st, at 9:30 am to decorate the Christmas trees in the sanctuary and the narthex. Many hands make things go quickly, so we should be done before lunchtime. Advent begins on December 2nd and we'd like to have the church looking nice! The large tree in the sanctuary window is shared with so many people each year — even with those driving by OSLC on a daily basis.

OSLC Advent Fair Sunday, December 2nd, 11:15 am

Mark your calendars to join with us at OSLC's Advent Fair on Sunday, December 2nd following worship, in Anderson Hall. Encompass NW will be on hand providing an open house in their space downstairs, and talking about the various ways they serve the community. Enjoy an Advent craft, and try the lefse-making station where young and old can try rolling the dough and flipping it on the griddle. Advent and devotional materials will be available, as well as a selection of seasonal books from the OSLC Library.

First Sunday Community Gift During Advent, Give HUGS!

Each Sunday during Advent, the congregation is invited to bring a different clothing item to donate to the Issaquah Food & Clothing Bank. Your donation can be placed in the narthex prior to worship.

Sunday, 12/2 - Hats (warm winter knit hats)

Sunday, 12/9 - Underwear (all sizes)

Sunday, 12/16 - Gloves (all sizes)

Sunday, 12/23 - Socks

Lunch for the Break:

School breaks are a joyous time for most children. Time away from school and homework. The opportunity to sleep in late and stay up late. To celebrate with family and play with friends. But for some children, school break is a time when their family doesn't have enough food. Many children in our community struggle with food security when school is not in session.

Lunch for the Break is working to make sure all Issaquah School District students have enough to eat, even when school is not in session.

OSLC will again host Lunch For The Break on December 17th and 18th. Registration for both donors and recipients can be done online at issaquahfoodbank.org. The shopping list for the food boxes is printed below and will also be published in upcoming worship bulletins.

May this Season of Giving bless you with full and happy hearts.

Food List for Lunch for the Break

The food list provided below is the shopping list of items that go into the food boxes. When you shop, please put only the food from the list in your box (or sturdy reusable bag) as we want all the food boxes to be fair and equitable. To decrease shopping expenses, families and groups can partner together for these shopping items. (Cost estimates were obtained from Safeway.com.) If you want to donate more, consider donating multiple boxes. Remember all items on the list must be included in the boxes or bags. Bring your full boxes/bags to OSLC by Monday, December 17th. If you have questions, contact Cheryl Leiter at leiterc55@aol.com.

COFFEE FELLOWSHIP

COFFEE HOUR MINISTRY VOLUNTEERS

We have a 'small but mighty' group that oversees the OSLC kitchen and supports the many ministries that use it. We're seeking a point person or small team to manage the Coffee Hour Fellowship. This would be work similar to organizing the Ushers, Greeters, and Sound Board volunteers.

Key duties: provide a sign-up sheet for coffee hour, and communicate how to set up and clean up to new volunteers. Coffee supplies are provided. Weekly volunteers provide any eats.

Interested? Please contact Marilyn Carlson at auntmare@nwlink.com or 206-499-9601.

A MESSAGE FROM THE BUILDINGS & GROUNDS COMMITTEE RE: THE KITCHEN GARBAGE DISPOSAL

The kitchen garbage disposal is wonderfully quiet. This feature often leads to the disposal being left on for long periods of time. Please remember to stop the disposal after using it. The disposal starts and stops the same way - by pushing the silver button, top right of the sink. (Safety features stop the disposal after it has been left on for a period of time. The disposal then needs to be reset, however, to get it to turn on again.)

Prayer Shawl Ministry

The prayer shawl ministry provides knitted or crocheted shawls to those who are hospitalized, sick or just need a hug! If you are interested in participating in this ministry, or, learning how to knit or crochet, contact Wendy Winslow at wendywinslow@hotmail.com. Yarn and patterns are available.

Women's Retreat Planning

Looking for a retreat in the spring? Planning for the next Women's Retreat is underway! All are welcome. If you would like to help make this event happen, contact Joan Friel at frielj4@comcast.net or 425-941-2925.

OSLC Mission Quilters

Join us on Wednesday mornings 9:30 am until 12:00 noon in Anderson Hall, and assist us making quilts. The Mission Quilters make simple patchwork quilts that are donated to people in need.

Quilts made by OSLC Mission Quilters are donated to Lutheran World Relief, and are then sent all over the world, frequently to countries following natural disasters such as earthquakes and hurricanes. Quilts are also given to OSLC graduating seniors, to Compass Housing Alliance, and our neighbors at the Isaquah Nursing & Rehabilitation Center.

The Mission Quilters welcome new members. It is not necessary to know how to sew or quilt to participate in this ministry. The group welcomes donations of fabric (preferably cotton) and clean used sheets. Donations to help with the cost of shipping and to buy supplies are also greatly appreciated. Contact the church office for more information, 425
