Be a community that fearlessly follows Jesus to love God's people.

"Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their toil."
Ecclesiastes 4:9

Greetings OSLC!

Last month I wrote about coaches, people who partner with others in a thought-provoking and creative process that inspires them to maximize their personal and professional potential. In that article I raised an important question: How might a coaching leadership style help OSLC more fully fearlessly follow Jesus?

For the past month I've spent a lot of time pondering this question. In part because as I look towards the future, I know that what has gotten OSLC to where it is, will not be able to get OSLC to where God is calling it to go next. I also know that OSLC is a diverse community with a richness of gifts, some that we might not even realize God has gifted us. A coaching leadership style is one way we might be able to discern them.

To work towards this goal of discovering where God is calling us, I began a coaching certification program in October, and am slowly working towards adding another tool to my leadership toolbox. And so I'd like to ask you: Do you feel God is up to something in your life? At OSLC? Would a coach help you? Let's talk. Please reach out.

OSLC is at an exciting time. We have moved through a major pastoral transition, as well as, two other major staffing transitions. We've started several new programs. We now host a non-profit in our building that matches our vision and values. But God isn't done working here. God's work has just begun.

I invite you to join me in discerning what's next for OSLC, and what role you will play in it.

In Christ, Pr. Wes

Thank you to the members of the Nominating Committee for their time and commitment: Bill Bergsma, Sue Friddell, Ray Harbolt, Cheryl Leiter, and Wendy Winslow.

Community Giving Tree

A giving tree is located in the narthex to collect gift cards for church members in times of crisis, those in Safe Parking and other Social Concerns Committee projects.

We invite you to take an ornament, purchase the gift card noted, and leave it in the drop box next to the tree.

- Target, Fred Meyer, Safeway and gas cards are among those most in need.

May this Season of Giving bless you with full and happy hearts.

OSLC Christmas Tree Trimming Saturday, December 1st, 9:30 am

Do you have a passion for decorating and sharing the magic of Christmas? Please join us on Saturday, December 1st, at 9:30 am to decorate the Christmas trees in the sanctuary and the narthex. Many hands make things go quickly, so we should be done before lunchtime. Advent begins on December 2nd and we'd like to have the church looking nice! The large tree in the sanctuary window is shared with so many people each year — even with those driving by OSLC on a daily basis.

Mark your calendars to join with us at OSLC's Advent Fair on Sunday, December 2nd following worship, in Anderson Hall. Encompass NW will be on hand providing an open house in their space downstairs, and talking about the various ways they serve the community. Enjoy an Advent craft, and try the lefse-making station where young and old can try rolling the dough and flipping it on the griddle. Advent and devotional materials will be available, as well as a selection of seasonal books from the OSLC Library.

Lunch for the Break

School breaks are a joyous time for most children. Time away from school and homework. The opportunity to sleep in late and stay up late. To celebrate with family and play with friends. But for some children, school break is a time when their family doesn't have enough food. Lunch for the Break is working to make sure all Issaquah School District students have enough to eat, even when school is not in session.

ISSAQUAH
Food & Clothing Bank

OSLC will again host Lunch For The Break on December 17th and 18th. Registration for both donors and recipients can be done online at issaquahfood-bank.org. The shopping list for the food boxes is printed on the following page, and will also be published in the worship bulletin.

May this Season of Giving bless you with full and happy hearts.

Food List for Lunch for the Break

The food list provided below is the shopping list of items that go into the food boxes. When you shop, please put only the food from the list in your box (or sturdy reusable bag) as we want all the food boxes to be fair and equitable. To decrease shopping expenses, families and groups can partner together for these shopping items.

Issaquah Food & Clothing Bank
LUNCH FOR THE BREAK

If you would like to purchase a prepacked box that will be delivered to OSLC, you may order online at www.issaquahfoodbank.org/lunchforthebreak. If you want to donate more, consider donating multiple boxes. Remember all items on the list must be included in the boxes or bags. Bring your full boxes/bags to OSLC by Monday, December 17th. If you have questions, contact Cheryl Leiter at leiterc55@aol.com.

OSLC Library News

Here it is, that "most wonderful time of the year" upon us once again. And, yes, it is wonderful for, oh, so many reasons!

Your church library is decorated and holiday books and DVD's are on display, ready to add all they can to the enrichment of your Christmas celebration this year. Start right away with advent ideas, recipe plans and decorating and activity ideas. Then settle in with the special book you've chosen for yourself or to share with your little ones. There are so many to choose from for all ages of readers! I've mentioned so many titles in the past. This time I've tried to choose some I most likely have not yet mentioned:

Celebrate Jesus! At Christmas; for Advent thru Epiphany

by Kimberly Ingalls Reese (263.9-REE)

Kneeling in Bethlehem Contemporary and faith-filled poems for the Christmas season

by Ann Weems ((811.54-WEE)

Christmas Around the World A LIFE volume of art and customs

by Robert Sullivan (394.2-SUL)

The Star of Bethlehem History , mystery and beauty of the Christmas Star

by Jeanne K. Hanson (232-HAN)

The Nutcracker

by E.T.A Hoffmann (JUV-F-HOF)

A Merry Little Christmas; celebrate from A to Z

A rhyming picture book for young children

Jesus, Me and My Christmas Tree

A rhyming re-telling of the Christmas story for little ones

These and so many more are now available in the library. Come and gather up a few books to enjoy throughout the Christmas season...and make this one "the most wonderful time" ever!

SUNDAY SCHOOL FOR YOUTH & ADULTS!

Gather with us each Sunday at 8:45 am in Anderson Hall for Adult Education Hour and Sunday School. Pastor Wes will start things off by engaging all ages with an introduction to the lesson for the day.

At 9:00 am, the gathering will break into small groups for discussion and faith-building activities. Groups: preschool-2nd graders, 3rd-7th graders, 8th-12th graders, and adults.

At 9:30 am, we'll come back together to recap and close in prayer.

The lesson each Sunday will be based on the Scripture readings used in worship, and will correlate with that day's sermon.

Tuesday Morning Bible Study

10:30 a.m.

Join Pastor Wes each week on Tuesday morning at 10:30 am in the library for a study of the Book of Revelation. Bring your favorite Bible and a pen to make notes. All

Small Group Ministries

Do you know of someone who may be home-bound, in senior care, or otherwise would like a visit from our Visitation Ministry and is not currently receiving visits? If so, please pass their name along to Kate Gagnon, OSLC's Lay Visitation Minister at kjgagnon@yahoo.com, or 425-200-0481.

COFFEE FELLOWSHIP

COFFEE HOUR MINISTRY VOLUNTEERS

We have a 'small but mighty' group that oversees the OSLC kitchen and supports the many ministries that use it. We're seeking a point person or small team to manage the Coffee Hour Fellowship. This would be work similar to organizing the Ushers, Greeters, and Sound Board volunteers.

Key duties: provide a sign-up sheet for coffee hour, and communicate how to set up and clean up to new volunteers. Coffee supplies are provided. Weekly volunteers provide any eats.

Interested? Please contact Marilyn Carlson at auntmare@nwlinc.com or 206-499-9601.

Small Group Ministries

Prayer Shawl Ministry

The prayer shawl ministry provides knitted or crocheted shawls to those who are hospitalized, sick or just need a hug! If you are interested in participating in this ministry, or, learning how to knit or crochet, contact Wendy Winslow at wendywinslow@hotmail.com. Yarn and patterns are available.

OSLC Mission Quilters

Join us on Wednesday mornings 9:30 am until 12:00 noon in Anderson Hall, and assist us making quilts. The Mission Quilters make simple patchwork quilts that are donated to people in need.

Quilts made by OSLC Mission Quilters are donated to Lutheran World Relief, and are then sent all over the world, frequently to countries following natural disasters such as earthquakes and hurricanes. Quilts are also given to OSLC graduating seniors, to Compass Housing Alliance, and our neighbors at the Issaquah Nursing & Rehabilitation Center.

The Mission Quilters welcome new members. It is not necessary to know how to sew or quilt to participate in this ministry. The group welcomes donations of fabric (preferably cotton) and clean used sheets. Donations to help with the cost of shipping and to buy supplies are also greatly appreciated. Contact the church office for more information, 425-392-4169, ext. 100.

Looking Ahead to 2019

OSLC Women's Retreat Fundraising Bazaar Sunday, January 13th, 2019, After Worship

On Sunday, January 13th we will hold our annual Women's Retreat Fundraising Bazaar in the narthex after worship. We'll need things like:

- cookies
- sweet breads
- whole pies
- jars of homemade jam
- handmade arts and crafts

We'll also be having a Silent Auction section, so be thinking of items to donate:

- fine bottles of wine
- gifts of time and talent
- basket full of goodies!

If you have a donation for the auction, please let Joan Friel know -via e-mail at fri-elj4@comcast.net or via a phone call/text msg. at 425-941-2925.

Also, if you can help with setup, sales, or cleanup at this event, please contact Joan and let her know. Thank you in advance for your support of the Women's Ministries at OSLC!

2019 OSLC Women's Retreat
Friday, March 1 – Sunday, March 3, 2019
at the Rainbow Lodge in North Bend

Women of the congregation (and your female friends) – you are invited to our 2019 OSLC Women's Retreat! We will be joined by ladies from St. Andrews Lutheran Church as well, so we are going to have a great time!

Our theme this year is "Living For the Common Good", and our speaker will be Pastor Mary-Alyce Burleigh from Holy Spirit Lutheran Church in Kirkland. We all strive to achieve the common good - the shared values and shared goals that will benefit our society as a whole. Through both study sessions and small groups, Pastor Mary-Alyce will discuss how the church has evolved in its ways to achieve these ideals, how we can continue to keep the common good, and how we can maintain this ethos to live for the common good.

Registration forms are available in the Narthex, or you can register online by visiting the church website at www.oslcissaquah.org/womens-retreat/

The fee for a full-time guest is $160 for double-occupancy, $180 for a single room. This covers lodging and meals for the entire weekend! A $50 registration deposit will be due by Friday, February 8th. You can also come for part of the weekend if you'd rather – the registration form has several options. Please come join us!

If you have any questions about the retreat, please contact Joan Friel at frielj4@comcast.net, or via phone/text message. at 425-941-2925.

P.S. Scholarships will be available as funds allow. If you would like to be considered for a full or partial scholarship, you may contact Joan or the church office – all requests will be strictly confidential.

Small Group Ministries

Please consider donating to the OSLC Women's Retreat Scholarship Fund!

The next OSLC Women's Retreat will be held during the first weekend in March 2019. The fee for the weekend is $160, and several attendees from last year could only come because we offered them a scholarship. Even just partial scholarships are helpful, so please consider donating to the scholarship fund. Contributions are tax-deductible — you could help someone attend, plus gain the tax benefit for 2018!

Please make checks payable to OSLC, with the words "Women's Retreat - Donation" on the memo line, and drop it in the offering basket, or the church office.

Thank you in advance for your support of Women's Ministries at OSLC! If you have any questions, please contact Joan Friel at frielj4@comcast.net, or via phone/text message at 425-941-2925.
