From the Desk of the Council President

The following is the Council President's Annual Report reflecting on this past program year, 2018-2019.

What is the legacy of OSLC? Someone asked me recently what it would look like if a church knew well in advance when it was going to close. What would they want to accomplish if they knew they only had five or ten years left? At first, I thought this was an interesting rhetorical question. Then I looked at our attendance for this year compared to last year. Average attendance is down 20% from the same period in 2018. If it continues at that same rate, attendance in 2025 will be down to about a quarter of what it was in 2018.

If we were to close today, what would our legacy be? These are some things I see:

- We have a culture issue we are refusing to address. We have a reputation for being unwelcoming. Visitors come and go without anyone speaking to them. Families are not comfortable bringing their young children to worship. I wrote about this in the newsletter a few months ago and someone whose children are grown told me she didn't bring her kids to church for that reason. Is it really a surprise those grown children are not attending church today?
- We do not listen to each other. I was asked to be on the call committee four years ago to give the perspective of a young family. I have been talking about what I want out of a church community for me and my family since, and I hear no more understanding today than I did then.
- Bad behavior is tolerated and excused. I have heard such things as, "Why would I talk to someone I don't know?" Earlier this year a group was greeting each other quietly when they were told, "You're disturbing the reflective silence!" People are told, "that's just the way so-and-so is."

From the Desk of the Council President

- Ministries are dying off due to lack of involvement. This in itself is natural - nothing continues forever. But what ministries are beginning to take their place?

We defined our vision in 2016: To be a community that fearlessly follows Jesus to love God's people. Did we mean it? If we did, and what I outlined above doesn't sit comfortably, this is what we need to do:

- Learn to engage in healthy conflict. Call out bad behavior when you see it. If you aren't able to address it as it happens, do it as soon after as possible. Pull the person to the side or call them and say, "Hey, I'm not sure if you realize, but this is how what you said came across. Is that really what you meant?"
- Listen to each other. What has worked in the past doesn't always work today. I have heard a number of different things people in my demographic are supposedly looking for, like a youth director or a praise band. None of them are high priorities for me. I want a community that embraces and supports my family and values what we have to offer.
- Get outside of our comfort zone and welcome everybody. I've heard OSLC is very welcoming to seniors and those approaching retirement. That has not been the experience for me or many of the other families I've talked to. If you see someone you don't know, introduce yourself. Welcome them to OSLC. Invite them in to Anderson Hall for coffee. Introduce them to someone else. Every time.
- Establish, grow, and support new ministries. The OSLC Mission Endowment Fund exists to provide funds to try new ministries. To my knowledge, it hasn't yet received any requests for funds. Get involved in something. If there isn't something you are interested in, get a few people and start something.

This won't be easy. It will take every single person to work at it. It's up to you to decide: Is OSLC worth it?

In Peace,
Manda Schoen

Annual Report to the Congregation

Be on the look out for the OSLC Annual Report in your email early this month. The OSLC Annual Report is a summary of the work of the congregation in our lives, our community, and the world beyond over the past program year. The church council, committee members and staff have worked together to prepare the report for the congregation, and for the purposes of maintaining a church history of activities.

Paper copies of the report will be available in the narthex or by contacting the church office.

The report includes the activities of the:

Council President
Church Staff
Building & Grounds Committee
Finance Committee
Global Missions Committee

Community Outreach Committee
Christian Education Committee
Youth Committee
Mission Endowment Fund Committee

Do you know of someone who may be home-bound, in senior care, or otherwise would like a visit from our Visitation Ministry and is not currently receiving visits? If so, please pass their name along to Kate Gagnon, OSLC's Lay Visitation Minister at kjgagnon@yahoo.com, or 425-200-0481.

The Social Concerns Committee has changed the Committee name to the Community Outreach Committee to better reflect what the Committee does. The scope of the Committee is addressing needs within the Church Community and within The Community at large. We support church members in need of assistance and organizations in the community like Issaquah Food Bank, Passage Point, Vine Maple Place, Eastside Baby Corner, Issaquah Schools Foundation, Issaquah Meals Program and Issaquah Community Services. Look for our new name in the future!

The Issaquah Meals Program is looking for a group of people (4-5 over the age of 15) to cook and serve dinner one night every other month. OSLC already participates one night per month so this is in addition to our current participation. Please let Cheryl Leiter or Connie Fletcher know if you are able to get a group together to serve. The Issaquah Meals Program was very thankful for the monetary donation OSLC made in April!

This month the Committee met with Pastor Don Burnett and a resident, Paula, from Passage Point. We were informed of ways we could support Passage Point. The Committee is discerning ways that our congregation's time and talent can be of support to Passage Point in the future. We will keep you posted. FYI - New info has been posted on Passage Point on our bulletin board in Anderson Hall.

2019 First Sunday Community Gift Calendar

The first Sunday of each month the congregation is invited to donate a needed item at the Issaquah Food & Clothing Bank. On June 2nd please bring hearty soups. Place your donation on the table in the narthex. The Social Concerns Committee will deliver all donations to the Food Bank.

OSLC Library News

An open invitation to all--from new to long-time OSLC members: Your church library, located across the hall from the nursery, invites you to drop in anytime and take a look at the great selection of books and DVD's that are available.

Your OSLC Library has a well-stocked fiction section, and a great assortment of non-fiction subjects from A to Z await. Children's books are located right under the window, early readers (especially helpful with summer approaching) are in displays to the right, followed by juvenile books marked with green stickers on their spines. DVDs are in a free-standing circular display nearby.

In the tall shelves you find adult reading; next is the reference material followed by the new additions bookcase. Easy to follow check-out information is on top of the new additions bookcase just inside the door. Be sure to check this one often--new titles are being added all the time. We hope you will visit soon and enjoy for yourselves some of the wonderful reading you will find in your library!

Sincerely,
Sharon Montei and the OSLC Library Committee

Prayer Shawl Ministry

The prayer shawl ministry provides knitted or crocheted shawls to those who are hospitalized, sick or just need a hug! If you are interested in participating in this ministry, or, learning how to knit or crochet, contact Wendy Winslow at wendywinslow@hotmail.com. Yarn and patterns are available.

OSLC Mission Quilters

Join us on Wednesday mornings 9:30 am until 12:00 noon in Anderson Hall, and assist us making quilts. The Mission Quilters make simple patchwork quilts that are donated to people in need.

Quilts made by OSLC Mission Quilters are donated to Lutheran World Relief, and are then sent all over the world, frequently to countries following natural disasters such as earthquakes and hurricanes. Quilts are also given to OSLC graduating seniors, to Compass Housing Alliance, and our neighbors at the Issaquah Nursing & Rehabilitation Center.

Mission Quilters welcomes new members. Don't know how to sew? No problem! It's not necessary to know how to sew or quilt to participate in this ministry. The group welcomes donations of fabric (preferably cotton) and clean used sheets. Donations to help with the cost of shipping and to buy supplies are also greatly appreciated.

OSLC Mission Endowment Fund Taking Grant Applications

Our OSLC Mission Endowment Fund is open for applications thanks to support from many donors over the last three years. We now have a modest and growing ability to make grants with somewhere between $500 and $2000 available for distribution.

Applications can be submitted at the church website, www.oslcissaquah.org. Use the "Missions" tab at the top of the page, and then click on the purple text: OSLC Endowment Fund Application Form. Submissions will be considered by the membership of the committee which meets quarterly.

The purpose of the Mission Endowment Fund is to make distributions that enhance the mission and ministry of Our Savior Lutheran Church apart from the general operation of the congregation. We look to support youth programs, scholarships, leadership training, outreach to the larger community, and other extraordinary programs/ministry initiatives that further the mission and ministry of Our Savior Lutheran Church.

Kind Regards,
Justin Ulland
OSLC Mission Endowment Fund President

COFFEE FELLOWSHIP

We're seeking members, friends and groups willing to volunteer as Coffee Hour Hosts. Pick one Sunday every other month, or once a quarter. Hosts bring some treats, make the coffee, set the serving counter, and clean up. It takes less than an hour to set up and clean up, and is a lot of fun! Coffee and creamer is provided by the kitchen committee.

A sign-up sheet is located in Anderson Hall, next to the kitchen. Questions? Help is at hand – we are here to guide you and give practical help. Please contact Chuck Bachman at bachmancj@aol.com, or Marilyn Carlson at auntmare@nwlinc.com.
