Greetings from your Acting Council President,

The Holy Trinity is present at Our Savior Lutheran Church. About ten minutes before last week's service, Wes told me I needed to do the send off readings with him. I asked the Holy Spirit to breathe through me. I asked for calm, clarity and professionalism. I wasn't disappointed with the result.

Earlier this summer I attended the two church campfire programs. I watched and listened to our future as the kids did a shortened version of our Sunday service. Jesus was there with us. A big shout out to Sue Johnson for all her time spent with our youth.

I've seen so many folks step up this summer to get things done. The deck outside the sanctuary needed a little refreshing. Instead it turned into a major construction project. Rick and Jan West, Doug and Sue Friddell, Ken Konigsmark Mike Anderson, Dave Carlson, Miles Cash, Cheryl Leiter and Ken De-Camp stepped up and saved the church well over $10,000 by doing all the work themselves. The youth group did the cleanup work, too.

There were so many volunteers jumping in to help out on Pastor Telyea's going away day. They showed the Christian spirit of compassion and empathy. They set aside some of the hurt and confusion and did what God commands us to do for our fellow neighbors.

The council and staff have been hard at work to keep the Lord's message going. Guest preachers have been signed up, pastoral needs have been arranged and Sunday School plans are ready to go.

We've been meeting with Bishop Wee and had phone conversations with her. I'm planning on a town hall after the service on September 8th to bring everybody up to date on different options for OSLC.

Keep the staff and council in your prayers. Please thank the many volunteers for the work they do. If you're asked to volunteer for something, say yes. God will guide you.

Yours in Christ,
Chuck Bachman, Council President

Northwest Washington Synod Evangelical Lutheran Church in America

God's work. Our hands.

Siblings in Christ, Grace and Peace to you.

As you may have heard, this past week was the ELCA Churchwide Assembly. One of the actions taken by the voting members was a decision for the ELCA to become a sanctuary denomination. Because of some questions concerning this, I wanted to let you know what this action means for you and for your congregation.

In its simplest form, becoming a sanctuary denomination means that the ELCA is publicly declaring that walking alongside immigrants and refugees is a matter of faith. Being a sanctuary denomination is about loving our neighbors.

While we may have different ideas about how to fix this broken system and may have different ways of loving our neighbors, our call to love our neighbor is central to our faith.

Of course, being a sanctuary denomination will look different in different contexts. It may mean providing space for people to live; providing financial and legal support to those who are working through the immigration system; hosting English as a Second Language (ESL) classes; marching as people of faith against the detention of children and families; having thoughtful conversations about what our faith says about immigration; or supporting other congregations and service providers. Whatever your local congregation decides to do, please note that we cannot mandate or direct our congregations and ministries to respond in specific ways. Each must work out what this means for you in your context.

Please understand that no congregation in the ELCA is being asked, expected, or required to break any law.

As you will see from this memorial, the ELCA continues to support the work of Lutheran Immigration Refugee Service (LIRS); to advocate for fair treatment of migrants and refugees; and to work to close the child detention centers and end the practice of separating families from one another. These are all things Lutherans have been doing for as long as there have been Lutherans. Many congregations have refugee resettlement experiences in their past and many congregations support the work of LIRS. Our decades long work with immigrants and refugees is how we practice our faith in the world.

I am excited to continue the work that we have done as Lutherans since our beginning: loving God and loving our neighbor - the two greatest commandments.

May God's peace and love be with you.

Bishop Shelley Bryan Wee

Setting the Table With the Altar Guild Committee

Do you enjoy seeing a nicely set table? Please consider joining the Altar Guild to help set the Lord's table. There are 2 ways to serve: baking bread or setting up for communion. You would serve once every four to six weeks.

The bread baker brings the bread on Sunday morning and puts it on the altar. A recipe for the bread is available.

Set up includes: filling the individual cups and setting everything out on the altar. After the service, clean and put away the service trays and communion ware.

Interested? Contact Karen Hansen at hansenk12015@gmail.com, or Jane Wuest at janewuest@hotmail.com. We'll pair you with an experienced Altar Guild member until you're comfortable with the job. Thanks for considering Altar Guild!

From the desk of Building & Grounds

Well, the sanctuary emergency exit deck supports and foundation wall structure repair has been completed. The Buildings & Grounds Committee recorded 42 volunteer hours, and a cost of $744.00 for materials. It's now safe to exit the church across the deck. The only thing left to complete is staining the new wood in early September. Thank you to all who gave their time and talents to this project. Sincerely, Rick West

Arusha Lutheran School of Nursing

OSLC provides money for scholarship at the Arusha Lutheran School of Nursing (ALSN), Arusha, Tanzania. The school currently provides 1, 2 and 3 year nursing degrees. The program began in rented facilities but learned accreditation requires ownership the school facilities. In order to maintain accreditation, ALSN entered into an arrangement with Ekenyewa Secondary School in Arusha to acquire the school's unused facilities and unused acreage for an expanded campus. The reconfigured facilities will accommodate dormitories, classrooms and a dining hall, and classrooms for specialized nursing education. The school's long-range goal is to also train technicians to operate and repair advanced medical technology.

OSLC Music Ministries

Ringling God's Praises Memorial Bell Choir

OSLC's tradition of ringing God's praises in worship continues. With a flexible rehearsal schedule and short-term commitments, Memorial Bells welcomes new members beginning this fall. Prospective ringers can contact director Alice Lewis with questions about the group, including potential rehearsal and performance dates, by phone at 425-432-0366, or email at alice@motorplex.com.

Singing God's Praises Chancel Choir

In the midst of a year of transition and change, the song of the people continues. Rehearsals for OSLC's Chancel Choir begin on Wednesday, September 11th, at 7:00pm in the sanctuary. Consider if a midweek oasis of laughter, hard work and song might be a welcome addition to your week. Questions about the choir? Please contact director Scott Hafso at belle-vuer@gmail.com.

Christian Education

Intergenerational Sunday School

We're going to be trying something a bit different this year! Rather than having separate adult and children's Sunday School programs, we're going to offer three choices that will be open to people of all ages. Our education hour will begin at 8:45 am with an opening prayer in Anderson Hall, followed by a selected Bible reading.

There will then be three options to dive deeper into that lesson:

1. A discussion group in Anderson Hall
2. An arts & crafts lesson downstairs
3. A study of music/lyrics of hymns/contemporary Christian songs or a literary reading related to the Bible lesson.

All groups will be focused on the major lesson(s) from that morning's Bible reading, but they'll explore them in ways that hopefully will speak to each of us. Come and see!

OSLC Youth Group Meets in Summer!

*4th Grade—High School
Sundays at 5:00 pm, at OSLC*

The Youth Group will be kicking off the school year with several fun activities, and we hope that all youth in grades 3 - 12 will come join us! We're busy planning a church cookout with lawn games for New Beginning Sunday (September 15th), a lock-in, a couple of fun outings, and several small service projects in addition to our regular meetings. We gather in Anderson Hall at 5 pm on Sunday evenings for supper, then move down to the Youth Lounge for our program of the week. This is an awesome group of young people who truly enjoy spending time together in service and in fellowship. We look forward to having an even bigger, more active group in the coming year!

The Community Outreach Committee made donations of designated funds to several organizations that work in our community. Donations went to Compass Housing Alliance, Issaquah Community Services, Issaquah Food and Clothing Bank and Congregations for the Homeless. Your contributions will be working in our community. Thank you for the contributions!

Last month's 1st Sunday collection of backpacks made it possible to donate 18 backpacks to the Issaquah Schools Foundation. These were distributed at their "Tools for School" event to children whose families are clients of the Issaquah Food Bank. Thank you for the backpacks!

Our 1st Sunday collection this month is Pasta or Spaghetti Sauce and Pasta on Sunday, September 1st.

Our next meeting of the Community Outreach Committee is September 11 at 1:30pm in the Narthex. All are welcome!

Former State Board of Education Member Connie Fletcher Receives National Public Service Award

The National Association of State Boards of Education (NASBE) announced that former state education leader, Connie Fletcher, is a recipient of their 2019 Distinguished Service Award. Fletcher completed her second term on the Washington State Board of Education this year after serving for 10 years. Fletcher also served two terms as western area director on NASBE's board of directors and chaired the Government Affairs Committee.

During her tenure on the Washington State board, she focused on the accountability system and revising standards in math, social studies, English, and the arts. Under her direction, the board developed the High School and Beyond Plan to give students greater flexibility in pursuing graduation paths aligned to their goals. She encouraged young people's civic engagement and service and took great pride in mentoring student board members.

"High standards and equity were key drivers of Connie's leadership on the board. She was instrumental in the major work of our state board over the past decade," said Washington state board chair Kevin Lavery. "She brought an exceptional understanding of the impact of state and national education policies on local school districts and students. She consistently kept students in focus, as well as the teachers and educators who work directly with students every day."

Fletcher has consulted for nonprofit organizations, municipalities, and school districts in good governance, planning, and major gifts fundraising. She served on the Issaquah School Board and was president of the Washington State Association School Directors Association. Under her leadership, the WSSDA published Closing the Achievement Gap, A Policy Action Guide for Washington State's School Directors, one of the first publications of its kind. She worked for the City of Seattle and for two United Way organizations and sits on several other boards.

Fletcher is one of three educational leaders being honored by NASBE for their contributions to education.

The 2019 Distinguished Service Awards will be presented October 17 at NASBE's annual conference in Omaha, Nebraska. Text from NASBE press release, www.nasbe.org

OSLC Library News

September is considered a month of New Beginnings at OSLC: Sunday School meets again with a new teacher and classroom, ministry teams have a fresh start, folks are returning to worship after vacation ends. A new beginning in the library can be found just inside the library door where the books new to our shelves can be found. Take a look and see what's there...the titles are changing all the time. Here's a few selections you can find there now...

- Just Mercy; A Story of Justice and Redemption by Bryan Stevenson (348 STE) - this book was awarded the Carnegie Medal for Excellence in Nonfiction and is the true story of a young attorney whose practice is dedicated to defending the poor and wrongly condemned.
- 10 Minutes to Knowing the Men & Women of the Bible by Jim George (220.92) - presents the major people of the Bible, providing bare bones background, the big picture, the portrait and life lessons to be learned from each--all presented in a clear and readable style.

These and more are waiting for your visit. After awhile they will be placed on the shelf where they belong according to their subject. Use the Dewey decimal code that is found between the parentheses to locate them then. And, remember, easy check-out directions can be found just above the new additions section. We hope you enjoy what you find there!

Sincerely, Sharon Montei and the OSLC Library Committee

Prayer Shawl Ministry

The prayer shawl ministry provides knitted or crocheted shawls to those who are hospitalized, sick or just need a hug! If you are interested in participating in this ministry, or, learning how to knit or crochet, contact Wendy Winslow at wendywinslow@hotmail.com. Yarn and patterns are available.

OSLC Mission Quilters

Join us on Wednesday mornings 9:30 am until 12:00 noon in Anderson Hall, and assist us making quilts. The Mission Quilters make simple patchwork quilts that are donated to people in need.

Quilts made by OSLC Mission Quilters are donated to Lutheran World Relief, and are then sent all over the world, frequently to countries following natural disasters such as earthquakes and hurricanes. Quilts are also given to OSLC graduating seniors, to Compass Housing Alliance, and our neighbors at the Issaquah Nursing & Rehabilitation Center.

Mission Quilters welcomes new members. Don't know how to sew? No problem! It's not necessary to know how to sew or quilt to participate in this ministry. The group welcomes donations of fabric (preferably cotton) and clean used sheets. Donations to help with the cost of shipping and to buy supplies are also greatly appreciated.

OSLC Mission Endowment Fund Taking Grant Applications

Our OSLC Mission Endowment Fund is open for applications thanks to support from many donors over the last three years. We now have a modest and growing ability to make grants with somewhere between $500 and $2000 available for distribution.

Applications can be submitted at the church website, www.oslcissaquah.org. Use the "Missions" tab at the top of the page, and then click on the purple text: OSLC Endowment Fund Application Form. Submissions will be considered by the membership of the committee which meets quarterly.

The purpose of the Mission Endowment Fund is to make distributions that enhance the mission and ministry of Our Savior Lutheran Church apart from the general operation of the congregation. We look to support youth programs, scholarships, leadership training, outreach to the larger community, and other extraordinary programs/ministry initiatives that further the mission and ministry of Our Savior Lutheran Church.

Kind Regards,
Justin Ulland
OSLC Mission Endowment Fund President

COFFEE FELLOWSHIP

We're seeking members, friends and groups willing to volunteer as Coffee Hour Hosts. Pick one Sunday every other month, or once a quarter. Hosts bring some treats, make the coffee, set the serving counter, and clean up. It takes less than an hour to set up and clean up, and is a lot of fun! Coffee and creamer is provided by the kitchen committee.

A sign-up sheet is located in Anderson Hall, next to the kitchen. Questions? Help is at hand – we are here to guide you and give practical help. Please contact Chuck Bachman at bachmancj@aol.com, or Marilyn Carlson at auntmare@nwlinc.com.
